POSITION DESCRIPTION

DIRECTOR OF DEACON FORMATION

BASIC FUNCTION

The Director of Deacon Formation National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States, “should be either a priest or a deacon, [and] is appointed by the diocesan bishop to be head of the deacon formation program. He reports directly to the bishop and should have regular communication with him. The director is ultimately responsible for both aspirant and candidate formation. However, the number of participants in either path may require the additional appointment of an associate. The director oversees the implementation of the formation program. He conducts regularly scheduled assessments; makes home and parish visitations; supervises the formation team, faculty, and mentors; and maintains contact with the aspirants’ and candidates’ pastors” (§271).
