| General Culture (Science and Faith) | Vatican Observatory Foundation (Faith & Science):
https://www.vofoundation.org/ | How often have you heard that science and faith are not compatible? Part of evangelization today is helping people see that faith and reason, theology and science, are two side of the same coin; God, who is Truth, is One. The Vatican Observatory website contains a section on “faith and science” (https://www.vofoundation.org/faith-and-science/) that is filled with articles, videos, and audio files that make clear that the Catholic Church is not an enemy of science! | Website | Formation  |
| Liturgy                     | Baldovin, John F., S.J. Bread of Life, Cup of Salvation: Understanding the Mass. Lanham, MD: Rowman and Littlefield Publishers, Inc. A Sheed and Ward Book, 2003. | Part of the “Come and See” series written for “Seekers” (those who are searching / exploring in regards to faith), this is a great introduction to the Mass, its history, and how we celebrate it today (though note it was published before the third edition of the Missal).
| Liturgy (Children)          | Duggan, Robert D. Teaching Kids the Basics of Liturgy: Making the Rituals More Meaningful. Allen, TX: RCL-Benzeriger, 2007. | An accurate and reliable guide to the basics about Catholic prayer and worship. Whether you are a teacher in the classroom or within the “domestic church” of your own family, this resource is meant to guide you in passing the faith on to (evangelizing) the next generation.
| Liturgy (Multicultural)     | Francis, Mark R., CSV. Liturgy in a Culturally Diverse Community: A Guide Towards Understanding / La liturgia en una Comunidad de Diversas Culturas: Una Guía para | This resource outlines the principles inherent in truly multicultural liturgies to assist liturgists, music directors, and others who prepare worship to promote the full participation of everyone in a culturally diverse assembly. | Book    | Formation  |
