

DIOCESE OF TRENTON

Elementary Religion Curriculum Guidelines

Grade K

Introduction

Elementary Religion Curriculum Guidelines

Vision

The Diocese of Trenton, understanding its essential role of evangelization – to build and sustain the Catholic Church in today’s world and to create a legacy of faith for future generations, calls its catechists to actively proclaim, model and nurture the Good News of Salvation. It seeks to dynamically fulfill the mission to “make disciples of all nations,” “to baptize in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit,” “to teach observance of all the Lord has commanded us,” and “to know that God is with us always, until the end of time.” (Mt 28: 19-20)

Realizing that the Lord’s missionary command charges all catechists to teach in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the Elementary Religion Curriculum Guidelines seek to assist in the formation of mature disciples by imparting a clear and comprehensive knowledge of the faith, promoting active participation in the liturgical life of the Church, integrating moral formation into a Christian way of life, teaching the rich tradition of prayer and devotion, educating toward a Christian integration of community life, and inculcating a missionary spirit that prepares Christians to witness Christ in society. (NDC: 2005, 60 -62)

Purpose

Religion Curriculum Guidelines provide a framework for catechists to plan, instruct and assess students by providing objectives that support the teachings of the Catholic Church in an atmosphere of multi-cultural diversity within parish Religious Education Programs, Catholic Schools and any other venues where catechesis is offered.

The General Directory of Catechesis articulates six tasks (GDC: 1997, #85) that provide the umbrella for religion curriculum objectives that comprise each grade level and are offered for introduction at lower grade levels and development as a child progresses on the faith journey. These tasks include:

- Promoting knowledge of the faith
 - Helping children to know, understand and integrate Catholic beliefs which are found in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition.
- Liturgical education
 - Helping children to know how the Church worships through full and conscious participation at Mass and para-liturgies.
- Moral formation
 - Helping children to recognize, understand and express that each person is called as a disciple of Jesus to love, forgive and serve others.
- Teaching to pray
 - Helping children to learn to pray the way Jesus did: adoration, praise, thanksgiving, filial confidence, supplication, and awe.
- Education for community life

- Building a sense of community life in order to come to an understanding of the Church as Communal life.
- Missionary initiation
 - Assisting children to become disciples of Christ, active in society and able to witness to, share their faith, and act on behalf of that faith for charity and justice.

It is the hope that all Religious Education programs will offer faith formation courses that are not only comprehensive in knowledge of the faith but instrumental in leading all students to a love of God and an active participation in the life of the Church. Since every culture brings unique expressions of faith to society, every religious education program should strive to be sensitive to cultural diversity and incorporate the prayers and traditions of their multi- ethnic populations.

The Goals of Catechesis

The goals of catechesis for elementary school catechists emanate from the three major goals of adult catechesis as proposed in the Church document: Our Hearts Were Burning within Us: A Pastoral Plan for Adult Faith Formation in the United States.

Specifically, these goals include:

- 1) to invite and enable ongoing conversion to Jesus in holiness of life,
- 2) to promote and support active membership in the Christian Community, and,
- 3) to call and prepare adults to act as disciples in mission to the world. (OHWB: 2005, #68, 70, 72)

Curriculum Guidelines for elementary religious education facilitate the accomplishment of the broader goals for catechesis. The process of evangelization to proclaim the Word and hand it down to future generations is key to every vibrant religious education program. “Evangelizing is, in fact, the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize.” (EN: 1975, #14) An integral element in catechesis is learning by discipleship. Curriculum guidelines strive to bring about that conversion to Jesus Christ that fosters an active decision to walk in the steps of Jesus. Religious literacy for every student of the Gospel should be a priority so that they will know the truths of the faith and be able to communicate them with clarity. Finally, religious education guidelines should engender the concept of life long faith formation since faith is a journey that begins at Baptism and ends when we are welcomed home to the Father.

With the three major goals of catechesis as an umbrella, religion curriculum guidelines need to support major objectives that encompass a comprehensive learning and living of the faith. Catechesis should be systematic and comprehensive so that children will be taught all the truths of the faith (i.e. the objective truths revealed by God in the life and work of Jesus Christ and the teaching of the Apostles continuing to our day in the Magisterium). Every grade should offer appropriate key concepts and knowledge that support the six tasks of catechesis mentioned in the “Purpose” for Religion Education Guidelines. The “tasks,” if accomplished, will send out to the world disciples who know the faith, live the faith, and have missionary zeal to pass it on to future generations. These disciples will actively participate in the liturgical and communal life of the parish and have a universal understanding of the Church’s rightful place in the modern world.

The Catechumenate as Inspiration for All Catechesis

The General Directory for Catechesis (GDC: 1997, #90) reminds us that the baptismal catechumenate is the model for catechizing. It adds that we should take note of “those elements of the catechumenate which must inspire contemporary catechesis.”

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA: 1988 Edition) has four stages:

- 1) the Pre-catechumenate – a time of inquiry and welcoming,
- 2) the Catechumenate – the time to learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian,
- 3) the Purification and Illumination – a time of intensified spiritual preparation, and
- 4) the Mystagogy – the time after Initiation to understand more deeply the mysteries; intensify commitment to parish life and on-going formation.

It is the hope of the Church that all Christians will draw inspiration from the Catechumenate and that all catechesis will instill a personal conversion and a deepened response to the baptismal call to holiness.

The Role of the Catechist

The primary catechetical goal of the catechist is to model God’s love to others. Consequently, the primary requisite of the catechist is a love for God and for children. Further, the role of the catechist is so integral to bringing the Good News of Salvation to the people of God that parishes recognize their sacred role, and indeed, commission catechists yearly before the praying community at Sunday Mass. “The apostolic work of the catechist springs from the Sacrament of Baptism through which all believers come to share in the prophetic ministry of Christ and the evangelizing mission of the Church.” (NDC: 2005, p. 228)

Catechists who are truly effective are practicing Catholics who participate in weekly Eucharistic worship and prepare for their apostolate through personal prayer and regular participation in professional development workshops. The workshops will offer sound theology, classroom management skills, an understanding of appropriate age/grade level curriculum objectives and a practical use of textbooks and resources to supplement their teaching.

Catechists, because of their sacred ministry, are called to a personal holiness. Their spiritual lives should be characterized by a love of God, adherence to a regular practice of the faith, personal prayer, missionary zeal, active participation in the parish community and devotion to Mary, the first catechist, and the Holy Eucharist, the source of nourishment for the journey. (NDC: 2005, p. 229)

Catechists require an adequate understanding of prevailing cultures within the community and to teach with sensitivity to them. Catechetical programs need to ensure that the catechists receive assistance in developing knowledge of the faith and traditions that will transmit the message effectively to the diverse students entrusted to them.

Above all, catechists should know that faith is a gift. They are the instruments God has chosen to bestow the gift of faith enriched by knowledge, prayer, and activities fostering an understanding of the Church's traditions.

The Diocese of Trenton is deeply indebted to its catechists and offers its prayerful support for their sacred, ongoing ministry as well as guidelines and opportunities for on-going catechist formation.

The Role of the Parish

The pastor has specific responsibilities that derive from his role as chief catechetical leader of the parish. The pastor shares these catechetical responsibilities with other members of the parish staff. "All believers have a right to catechesis; all pastors have the duty to provide it." (CT: 1979, 696, #64)

The aforementioned Catechumenal model emphasizes that it is the parish community which catechizes. The parish is the local setting for communal prayer, liturgy, the reception of the sacraments and the works of charity and social justice that every Christian needs to embrace to live out his/her baptismal calling. For children and adults to be fully formed in faith, the pastor needs to ensure that:

- 1) Catechesis is emphasized in a way that is age-appropriate for adults, youth and children;
- 2) A total parish plan for catechesis is developed and implemented in consultation with parish councils and catechetical leaders;
- 3) Catechesis for adults is a priority and recognized as the parish's primary mission;
- 4) Catechesis of youth and young adults is situated within a comprehensive plan;
- 5) Catechists at all levels are well-formed and trained;
- 6) Catechetical formation is available for all language groups;
- 7) The baptismal catechumenate is a vital component in the organization of catechesis in the parish; and,
- 8) The catechumenate is an essential process in the parish and serves as an inspiration for all catechesis. (NDC: 2005, p. 221)

By virtue of baptism everyone who ministers in the parish or has specific responsibility for catechesis is charged to be a model of faith and a person of prayer. As a member of a community called to follow Christ, each will understand his/her responsibility to be a disciple in the total parish community. All should strive to bring parishioners into the fullness of parish life, inviting them to continue on the faith journey begun at Baptism.

The Role of Leadership in Religious Education

Just as effective leadership is integral to the positive outcomes of any organization, so is leadership in formally teaching the truths of the Catholic faith. The Church, in a unique way, calls all pastors, Directors of Religious Education Programs and Principals of Catholic Schools to minister in the footsteps of Jesus, by modeling the faith, practicing it daily and preparing all those who choose to nurture the faith of others through faith formation classes.

Leadership in Catholic faith formation must be well-grounded in the truths of the faith and profess them with zeal. In their leadership roles, they seek to offer professional development and pedagogical assistance to the catechists so that their ministry prepares students to live as Catholics whose faith has been nurtured and enlivened to proclaim the Gospel in everyday living and in liturgical celebrations with the praying community.

Pastors, in their roles as parish leaders, are called to ensure that “a total parish plan for catechesis is developed and implemented in consultation with the parish council and parish catechetical leadership.” The pastor also has “the primary responsibility to ensure that the catechetical needs, goals, and priorities of the parish are identified, articulated and met.” (NDC: 2005, p.221) Pastors, because of their leadership in a variety of parish ministries, often delegate managerial and ministerial aspects of catechetical programs to the Directors of Religious Education and Catholic School Principals while appreciating the serious responsibility of nurturing the spiritual life of every parishioner.

Parish Directors of Religious Education are generally responsible for the overall implementation of every program that comes under the umbrella of faith formation for adults, youth and children. This role includes:

- 1) Planning, implementation, and evaluation of the of the parish catechetical program,
- 2) Recruitment, formation, ongoing development, and evaluation of catechists,
- 3) Implementation of diocesan and parish catechetical policies and guidelines, including the areas of catechist certification and supervision and administrative policies related to negligence, sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and the safety and protection of minors,
- 4) Collaboration with the pastor, other parish ministers, and appropriate committees, boards, and councils,
- 5) Assistance in liturgical planning, and,
- 6) Attention to their own personal, spiritual, and professional development. (NDC: 2005, p. 225)

The Catholic School Principal, as a spiritual and catechetical leader of the Catholic School community, is called to:

- 1) Recognize that all members of the faculty and staff are an integral part of the process of religious education,
- 2) Recruit teachers who are practicing Catholics and accept the teachings of the Catholic Church,
- 3) Supervise the performance of and provide for the on-going development of, each teacher who functions as a catechist, i.e., teaches religion,
- 4) Provide opportunities for ongoing catechesis for faculty members,
- 5) Foster a distinctively Christian community among the faculty, students and parents,
- 6) Provide for the spiritual growth of the faculty, and,
- 7) Collaborate with parish, area, and diocesan personnel in planning and implementing programs of total parish catechesis. (NDC: 2005, p. 231)

The Role of Parents and Family

The catechesis given by the parents with the family “precedes, accompanies and enriches all other forms of catechesis.” (NDC: 2005, p. 234; CT: 1979, #68)

Catholic parents who bring their children to be baptized are the source of both human life and the life of the Spirit for their children. Since parents bring their children to the sacraments of Christian initiation, they are the primary educators of the faith for them. “Parents catechize primarily by the witness of their Christian lives and by their love for the faith.” (NDC: 2005, p. 234) Parents catechize their children by participating in the life of the parish, especially at Sunday Eucharist, by their willingness to evangelize and serve others, and by their participation in daily prayer (NDC: 2005, p. 234). Therefore, the education which takes place in the home is “more witnessed to than taught, more occasional than systematic, more ongoing and daily than structured into periods.” (GDC, 255).

Parents assume their responsibilities to catechize their children at baptism. The parish, in turn, supports this responsibility by offering formal catechetical programs for children to help foster their children’s faith and assist them in preparation for full initiation into the Church with the reception of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation. Parents may also choose to catechize their children formally at home, understanding that it is their responsibility to teach a course in keeping with the objectives of the parish Religious Education Program. Formal study at home is arranged in consultation with the Pastor and the parish Religious Education leaders.

Parents have a responsibility to be formed in the faith so that they can pass it on to their children. Parishes offer programs to assist parents, especially when they are preparing their children for the reception of sacraments. Parents should also take advantage of Adult Faith Formation programs so that their personal faith journeys can be nurtured, enlivened and enriched.

The Role of the Catholic School

Catholic Schools, by their mission, message and vision, are a rich source for evangelization and a place where the Gospel message is integrated into all the events of the day. “The Catholic School forms part of the saving mission of the Church, especially for education in the faith.” (Sacred Congregation for Catholic Education, The Catholic School: March 19, 1977 #9) It is “not simply an institution which offers academic instruction of high quality, but, even more important, is an effective vehicle of total Christian formation.” (Teach Them, NCCB/USCC: 1976, p.5)

Since Catholic Schools are centers for evangelization, their catechetical programs are essential to their distinctly Catholic identity and character. (NDC: 2005, p. 231) Every member of the faculty, led by a faith-filled principal, is committed to advancing the Gospel message into every aspect of the school day. Catechetical instruction in the Catholic School, to be authentic, should be based on Sacred Scripture and the tenets of faith as articulated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Religion teachers in Catholic Schools not only teach the Catholic Faith as an academic subject but also bear witness to the truth of what they teach. (NDC: 2005, p.232)

Conscious of the challenges of the 21st century, great care has been taken in the Diocese of Trenton to generate Curriculum Guidelines for every academic discipline. Christian values and ideals are integrated with academic objectives to achieve knowledge that is current, comprehensive and faith-based. Teachers are called to an ongoing professional development that offers adult faith formation and pedagogy, including current technology, to support teaching strategies in every academic area.

Working collaboratively with the parish, the Catholic School affords a daily opportunity for “proclaiming and living the Gospel message, for learning and appreciating the teachings of the Church, for acquiring a deep understanding, reverence and love of the Liturgy, for building community, for prayer, for proper formation of conscience, for the development of virtue, and, for participating in Christian service.” (NDC: 2005, p. 233)

“By equipping our young people with a sound education, rooted in the Gospel message, the person of Jesus Christ, enriched in the treasured traditions and liturgical practices of our faith, we ensure that they have the foundation to live morally and uprightly in our complex modern world.” (“Renewing our Commitment to Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools in the Third Millennium,” USCCB, 2005)

Children’s Growth in Faith

Just as all human life has stages of development in the cognitive, psychological, social and physical domains, it is important to recognize that every age has its unique characteristics for faith formation.

The early childhood stage of development is a critical time for religious education and formation, “This age group possesses, in the light of faith and reason, the grace of the beginnings of life, from which valuable possibilities exist, both for the building up of the Church and for the making of a more humane society.” (GDC: 1997, p. 117). When the child comes to school, the Church or the parish, the moment of catechesis is “aimed at inserting him or her organically into the life of the Church. The major thrust of catechesis is to give witness to the faith.” (CT: 1997, 37) When children are very young their frame of reference is strongly influenced by the parish program and the family. Catechesis should be family sensitive and involve, as much as possible, the cooperation and participation of the family. It is a time of moral formation where young children are exploring how and why things work and how they should behave in a variety of situations. (Resounding the Good News, Catechetical Curriculum Guidelines, Archdiocese of Baltimore 2005, p. 10)

Primary grade children, K-2, traditionally develop a greater attention span up to 20 minutes. For this group, then, concepts need to be clear, concise and presented one at a time. These children are interested in the concrete and factual rather than the abstract. They are able to participate in community celebrations and appreciate what it means to belong to a group. Catechetical programs for these children need to be designed to include them in liturgical celebrations as well as rituals, prayers and stories from Sacred Scripture. (Resounding the Good News, Catechetical Curriculum Guidelines, Archdiocese of Baltimore 2005, p. 19)

The intermediate grade child, Grades 3-5, is described as vibrantly alive, always in motion and full of enthusiasm. These children are on a plateau momentarily, physically and psychologically, though they are showing increased intellectual ability and moral growth. They have greater control over their fine and gross motor skills and enjoy activity and interaction. They show greater evidence of increased intellectual skills of memory and reasoning and are anxious to investigate, observe and draw conclusions. Morally, these children are beginning to show growth in conscience development. They are becoming legalistic. The desire to identify with and to be of service to their own community of faith begins to take root at this time.

(Resounding the Good News, Catechetical Curriculum Guidelines, Archdiocese of Baltimore 2005, pp. 26, 27)

Early adolescents, Grades 6-8, experience a rapid rate of physical growth that influences a high level of self-consciousness and self-awareness. They are also growing intellectually and moving away from concrete thinking to more abstract thought.

They may need to question familiar paths, such as, why do they need to go to Mass? Early adolescents have a need for connection, affiliation, and identity. These catechists need to possess a great appreciation and understanding for the adolescent's desire to belong. The Church has an opportunity at this time, to provide a safe haven where the individual can learn about relationships and develop friendships. Therefore, the primary aim of adolescent catechesis is to sponsor youth toward maturity in Catholic Christian faith as a living reality. (Resounding the Good News, Catechetical Curriculum Guidelines, Archdiocese of Baltimore 2005, pp. 38, 39)

Inculturation

Inculturation is "An ongoing reciprocal process between faith and culture." It is a way of looking at the customs, rites and rituals of people to discover in them the saving presence of God. ("Who Are My Sisters and Brothers?" – Glossary, USCCB, April 2007)

"In relation to their faith, children/youth need an understanding of the rich ethnic and cultural diversity and universality of the Catholic Church. They need to understand their own culture as well as the cultures of the many people who make up the population of our country. This understanding reaches especially to those who are presently coming to the United States and who may be members of the same parish that the children/youth attend. This mutual cultural knowledge and understanding enriches their practice of the Catholic faith and intensifies their practice of charity in welcoming the stranger with a magnanimous Catholic spirit." (Diocese of Wilmington – Curriculum Outcomes for Religious Education, 2007, p. 8)

Every parish has its distinct cultural make-up that should be celebrated and made a part of the fabric of faith formation. Cultural traditions enrich all the parish members and should be shared with the broader community so that all are welcomed and received with the peace of Christ.

Meeting the Needs of Special Learners

Just as Jesus welcomes the children to come to Him, the local parish should be a welcoming community for everyone, especially those with special needs. Every person, however limited, is capable of growth in holiness. (GDC: 1997, p. 189) Care will be taken that catechetical personnel are chosen for their ability to work with sensitivity and expertise in special education.

Children with special needs have a right to develop a relationship with God that the Christian community should recognize and foster. They should be integrated into ordinary catechetical programs as much as possible. Goals and objectives for these students should be modified, if necessary, so that the students can be assimilated in the regular classes and be active members of the learning community of faith.

Religion Curriculum Guidelines are to be adapted to the special needs children so that they can learn the basic tenets of faith, be part of a praying community, and be fully initiated through the reception of sacraments with their peers.

Since not every special needs student will be able to understand all the truths of the faith, concepts should be presented with clarity and age appropriate vocabulary so that they can partake in faith formation and be able to live their faith to the fullness of their being. In some instances, children may have severe disabilities that do not allow for them to be integrated into a regular class setting. In those instances the catechetical director should strive to provide the family with materials and strategies for home use so their faith journey from Baptism is allowed to progress and flourish. Modified assessments should be available for these students at every level. In the case of severe disabilities, the parish should offer, if possible, handicap accessibility to programs so that the majority of the parishioners can partake in faith formation experiences.

Integrating Family Life Objectives

Family Life is the primary source of grace and education in the Catholic faith. Parents bring their children to the saving waters at Baptism and continue to nurture the faith of children by daily walking the faith journey with them.

The Diocese of Trenton promotes the sacredness of family life by encouraging Religious Education Programs to offer specific lessons that foster family life values. These values consider:

- 1) God's love for us and our love for God
- 2) Loving others as a response to God's love
- 3) Understanding sacrificial love
- 4) Expressing love through vocations
- 5) Promoting a virtuous life, and,
- 6) Choosing and living a chaste life

Religious Education guidelines seek to include objectives that integrate the ideals of traditional Catholic family life curriculum. These ideals come under the umbrella of the six tasks of catechesis, most notably those that foster a knowledge and love of God, a moral formation, and a respect and reverence for the presence of God in each person. Objectives on human sexuality are met by the parents in the context of home and family. Parishes should make available parent information programs to assist in teaching human sexuality to their children with a faith perspective consistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church. “Catechesis on the sixth and ninth commandments includes instruction on the gift of human sexuality, its inherent goodness, and the proper place of that gift within the context of the faithful, fruitful, and life-long marriage.” (NDC: 2005, p. 177)

Alternative Models of Religious Education

The 21st Century often poses challenges to the family and professional lives of the Catholic Community. Since secular educational programs are offering a variety of methods and media and alternate settings to teach students, so too does the Catholic Church need to explore multiple possibilities for instructing students in the Catholic faith. Traditionally, parish Religious Education Programs and Catholic School religion curriculums taught the tenets of the faith in a weekly structure of lessons that effectively covered a course of study by the conclusion of the school year. Today, parishes need to consider the unique needs of their communities and offer programs that will respond to those needs while continuing to provide a comprehensive catechesis.

“Just as Christ instructed his followers according to their capacity to understand the message, the Church must also take serious account of the circumstances and cultures in which the faithful live in order to present the meaning of the Gospel to them in understandable ways.” (NDC: 2005, p.186)

These programs may be intergenerational in nature where adults and children come together in the parish setting to learn about the Catholic faith. They may offer summer programs that run for one or several weeks that instruct the students in the major objectives of a year’s course of study. They may offer intermittent programs that are liturgically seasonal so that the richness of the Church year is shared with students. They may also offer unique programs that pastoral leadership, in consideration of the expressed needs of the community, feels is appropriate to nurture the faith of its parishioners. These programs would also provide a comprehensive set of instructions and events that would meet the basic requirements of passing on the faith and assisting the students to be fully functional Catholics ready to take their places in the praying community.

As alternative models of religious education are considered or arise, they should be shared with the catechetical leadership of the Diocese of Trenton. Professional development programs for catechists should be instituted for these programs to give credence to their viability and prepare the catechists to teach the faith in these alternative settings.

Assessment instruments/activities should be an integral component of these programs to ensure that the six tasks of catechesis and their associated objective outcomes are accomplished.

Outcome-Based Education

The Religious Education Curriculum Guidelines contain a set of objectives for the children to meet on every grade level. These objectives encompass the six tasks of Catechesis which include:

- 1) Promoting knowledge of the faith
- 2) Liturgical education
- 3) Moral formation
- 4) Teaching to pray
- 5) Education for community life
- 6) Missionary initiation

These tasks as stated in the General Directory of Catechesis (GDC: 1997, #85) provide the framework for the religious education outcomes to be met in every level from Pre-Kindergarten through Eighth Grades. Catechists, in their planning and preparation, should consider a variety of assessment tools to determine that the objectives of the Religious Education Curriculum Guidelines are taught and ultimately learned by the students so that they can pursue their faith journeys to become fully initiated, faith-filled Catholics.

Integrating Technology and Media in the Curriculum

Teaching for the 21st Century compels every catechist to bring the Good News of Salvation to their students through the use of technology and the media in a profound and comprehensive presentation. Today's children have been born into a technological society and are reasonably astute in using multi-media technology in every aspect of their lives. If technology provides an active path for learning and living successfully in the 21st Century, then the religious education program is encouraged to reflect and provide learning experiences that are supported through technology. The Internet can offer endless sources of information and research in the Catholic faith, and the operations systems of computers can provide avenues for expression through word documents, power point presentations, publishing software, podcasts, and a host of other programs that bring the faith to life and make it multi-dimensional.

Professional development in the educational use of technology should be considered by all teachers of religion. Just as there is an expectation that teachers of religion take part in religion certification programs to keep them current in the theology of the Catholic Church, there is an expectation that teachers will be reasonably proficient in using technology to effectively deliver the message of faith. Since Internet research can offer an array of possible sites for further study, teachers of religion should also become familiar with sites that are approved by the Church to provide authentic Catholic doctrine. Applicable Internet resources are generally available through approved Diocesan textbook vendors and should be used as tools for appropriate research.

Format for Using the Religion Curriculum Guidelines

In an effort to unify the teaching of religion throughout the Diocese of Trenton, a format for the Grade level chapters was developed by the Religion Curriculum Guidelines Committee to assist the catechists. This format allows for a more comprehensive understanding of the tasks of catechesis and the goals and objectives that comprise each task. It offers each catechist an opportunity to review the goals and objectives in the previous grade while providing a systematic roadmap of the truths of the faith that need to be imparted or reviewed on each grade level. It is the hope that every student who attends catechetical classes on a yearly basis will eventually have a broad understanding of Catholicism - its sacraments, prayers, practices and service orientation. The format for using each grade level of the Religion Curriculum Guidelines includes:

- 1) A Statement of the Grade level,
- 2) A “Before You Begin” section which states the faith development of the child on the given grade level and a review and integration of the concepts from the previous grade,
- 3) A “Student Outcomes” section which states the expectations for the student according to the six tasks of catechesis,
- 4) Scripture for the grade level, and,
- 5) Vocabulary for the grade level. PLEASE NOTE: Vocabulary words, especially on the younger levels, should not be seen as a list of spelling words, or a list of words for which definitions are to be memorized. They are simply words to which students should be exposed, so that through repetition, the student will become familiar with the concept.

The format provides a framework for all catechists so that planning appropriate lessons will be effective and the instruction of students enhanced. Students who participate in a Diocesan catechetical program should be well-informed in the truths of the faith and able to take their places as active Catholics in their individual Church communities.

Kindergarten

The Faith Development of the Kindergarten Child

Kindergarten children need to be lead to a loving, personal relationship with God. This involves the child, parent or guardian and catechist. Kindergarten children are always open to new experiences. They are full of curiosity and wonder which help them to want to explore God's creation. Children at this age are beginning to develop a relationship with God. They are starting to grow in an understanding of who they are in relationship to God and others, especially their parents.

In Kindergarten the children will be introduced to the following concepts

Student Outcomes

1. Knowledge of the Faith

The children will be introduced to the following core beliefs:

- a. God is the Creator, and He gave us all things. (CCC 41-49; 279-283)

- c. God made us. (CCC 292; 842)
- d. Begin to understand the love God has for them is visible through the love others have for them. (CCC 516; 604)

6. Missionary Initiation

When the words "missionary initiation" are used to describe the sixth task of catechesis, we are not meant to envision it as being at the bottom of the list, a task that we might get to after we accomplish the other five tasks. Rather, "missionary initiation" means preparing to take on the mission of Jesus: to love others, to serve those in need, and, perhaps most importantly, to spread the Good News of salvation. Spreading the Good News is what we call "Evangelizing" and is described by Church leaders as the foundation of the house of the Catholic Faith. The other five tasks build upon it, so that we might see “missionary” and “evangelizing” as adjectives describing each of our five tasks (i.e. missionary or evangelizing “knowledge of the faith,” missionary or evangelizing “liturgical education,” etc.)

The words “missionary” and “evangelization” are sometimes misunderstood by Catholics today. In the past, we spoke of missionaries as those brave saintly people who went off to foreign lands to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ to people who had never heard of him or the Church (the mission ad gentes—“to the nations”).

But the truth is that all Catholics are called to evangelize. As early as 1983, Pope John Paul II appealed to the whole church by saying, "...The moment has come to commit all of the Church's energies to a new evangelization and to the mission ad gentes. No believer in Christ, no institution of the Church can avoid this supreme duty: to proclaim Christ to all peoples." (Redemptoris Missio—“Mission of the Redeemer,” 3)

What is “new” is the focus on reaching out to those family members and friends that are already in our lives. Every one of us is asked to spread the Good News to others—our children, our peers or even our parents.

To be “missionary” is to be Catholic, to be ready and willing to share our faith with others in everyday life at home, at school, in our neighborhood and our town, with our family, friends, and acquaintances right here, right now. Jesus tells us, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” (Jn. 20: 23) Through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist (Sacraments of Initiation), we are called and sent to continue Jesus’ mission, to invite everyone to experience his love and forgiveness. To live out this call, we need to think and act like missionaries, like evangelists.

Children in kindergarten will be introduced to the following:

- a. Wherever we are at home, school, or playing with friends, we are followers of Jesus and should act like his followers. (CCC 520; 562; 546; 1533)
- b. Jesus asks us to share our faith with others. (CCC 905; 861)
- c. We should pray for those who spread and teach the faith, especially for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. (CCC 873; 931)

Scripture References:

Introduce the Bible as a Book of stories about God. The children will grow in their understanding of the bible. The Bible is a special book that tells stories about God.

- Genesis 1:3-5, 10, 25
- Mark 12:30
- Luke 2:1-8
- John 3:16; 6:3-15; 15:12
- Matthew 4:23-25; 17:5
- Acts of the Apostles 17:25

Vocabulary – Vocabulary words, especially on the younger levels, should not be seen as a list of spelling words, or a list of words for which definitions are to be memorized. Children will be introduced verbally to the following concepts:

Bible	Mass
Christmas	Our Father
Church	Prayer
Easter	Saints
Forgive	Sign of the Cross
Hail Mary	Share Faith

Saints – Children will be introduced to the following Saints using stories:

Mary
Joseph

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

CCC #2166

Our Father Mt. 6:9-13

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

CCC #2759, 2761, 2777-2865

Hail Mary Lk. 1:28, 42

Hail Mary, full of grace! The Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

CCC #2698

Prayer Before Meals

Bless us, O Lord, and these Your gifts which we are about to receive from Your goodness, through Christ our Lord. Amen

CCC #2698

Prayer After Meals

We give You thanks, almighty God, for all Your goodness. You live and reign now and forever. Amen

CCC #269

Acts of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend You, my God, who are all-good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In His name, my God, have mercy. Amen

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Roman Missal 3rd Edition

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Roman Missal 3rd Edition

The Rosary

The Rosary is a meditative prayer. It consists of a series of beads on which we pray traditional prayers such as the Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be while we think about special events in the life of Jesus and Mary, Begin praying the Rosary with the cross. Pray the Sign of the Cross and the Apostles' Creed.

On the first bead pray one Our Father, on the next three beads a Hail Mary each and end with Glory Be to the Father.

Begin the first decade by saying one Our Father and then ten Hail Marys on the row of beads following it.

After the decade pray one Glory Be to the Father. Continue the remaining decades with an Our Father on each single bead and ten (10) Hail Marys on each row of beads. Conclude each decade with a Glory Be to the Father.

CCC #2656-2658

Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; for He has looked with favor on His lowly servant, and from this day all generations will call me blessed. The Almighty has done great things for me; Holy is His Name. He has mercy on those who fear Him in every generation. He has shown the strength of His arm, He has scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty-handed. He has come to the help of His servant Israel for He remembered His promise of mercy, the promise He made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever. Amen

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not seek so much to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
