

Pallottine Teenage Federations
 58th Annual Conference
“Quiet, God’s At Work”

Friday Nov. 29th – Sunday Dec. 1st
 Honors Haven Resort & Spa
 Ellenville, NY

Keynote Speaker: Bill Lage

Since 1992, Bill Lage has had a passion for sharing his heart as an entertainer. From his beginnings he was a member the band BJD - (because Jesus died) and since 1994, a mobile disc jockey. With his Christian message and his ability to performing music that was clean, fun and positive he looks for the positive message inside the music. He connects with your walk as a Christian and his positive message has led to many speaking engagements.

He has been a keynote speaker across the Midwest, in 2009 was a presenter at the National Catholic Youth Rally, and in 2013 he was the Master of Ceremonies for the National March for Life event and was invited back for three years in a row. In 2015-2017, he was on the main stage of the National Catholic Youth Conference to share his Catholic Dance message.

His presentations on prayer and music and preparing youth to celebrate the Mass and stand up for life have been part of his energetic presentations. He is a multi-talented keynote and DJ known for his stories to inspire and connect with youth.

We celebrate:

Come join us at the dance party with Sound Explosion, who are back by popular demand!

Mass

Reconciliation

Benediction

Facilities @ Honors Haven Include

For more information

Call Toni Kerins (845)-774-9321

Michael Spear (845)-391-9724 or Samantha Schucker (845)-625-8478

