The class will begin each week at 10:20 a.m.

Kolache Bakes

Are you interested in learning how to make authentic Czech kolaches for this year's Czech sausage dinner? If so, join us for one or more of our kolache bake sessions in the parish hall kitchen on February 14, February 21, and February 23 from 8:30 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Mary Knox and Amanda Lawson will be leading us as we prepare 1,000 homemade kolaches to serve with this year's dinner.

Young Catholics' Corner

When Jesus preached in the house of prayer (the synagogue) in his hometown of Nazareth, the people were surprised that he was the son of Mary and Joseph, whom they had known since his birth. They quickly became angry at him, though, when he suggested that God had sent him not for the people of Nazareth or the rest of the Jewish people, but for outsiders and those who did not even believe in God. They became so angry that they ran Jesus out of town. We, too, can become frustrated or upset when we learn that God shares love and mercy with everyone, even with those we think don't deserve it. Lord Jesus, help us to remember that your gifts of grace are meant for all people, not just for those who are just like us. Help us to remember that they are part of your family, too!

Please save this February newsletter for future reference, since some of this information will not be repeated in the weekly editions of the bulletin.
