

Indicators of the Fundamental Tasks of Catechesis¹

"All of these tasks are necessary. As the vitality of the human body depends upon proper function of all of its organs, so also the maturation of the Christian life requires that it be cultivated in all its dimensions: knowledge of the faith, the church life, moral formation, prayer, along to community, missionary spirit."
 (General Directory For Catechesis, Paragraph 87)

Promoting Knowledge of the Faith

Indicator	Examples
A basal text, in compliance with the Catechism of the Catholic Church , is used
Diocesan religious education curriculum guidelines are a main reference for teaching/learning
The religion curriculum includes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Scripture ✓ Doctrine ✓ Morality ✓ Sacraments ✓ Prayer ✓ Liturgy ✓ Social Teaching
Schedule gives evidence that time for religion classes is equal to other subject areas
Religion teachers are certified catechists
Religion teachers are active Catholics who serve as models of faith
Inservice opportunities are provided to update faculty regarding Church teachings
A variety of methods in religious instruction are observable
Religion teachers regularly assess individual and group accomplishment of learning objectives
Classroom textbooks and materials support gospel values and are supplemented as needed
The family life program reflects church teaching
Other:
Other:
Other:

¹ Developed by Matthew J. Hayes in 2000 from the following sources:
 "The Distinctively Catholic School," Archdiocese of Indianapolis, 1986
 "Professional Growth Plan for Teachers," Archdiocese of Louisville, April 1997
 "Catholic Identity Section" of the Certification Process of the Kentucky Non-Public Schools Commission, December 1998
Our Hearts Burning Within Us: A Pastoral Plan for Adult Faith Formation in the United States, United States Catholic Conference, 1999.

Liturgical Education

Indicator	Examples
Eucharistic liturgy is given high-priority
School liturgy is coordinated with parish liturgy whenever appropriate
Ample opportunities are provided for participation in the sacrament of Reconciliation
Liturgical seasons and special church feasts are celebrated and are visible in school decorations
Rituals are used to support Catholic values in instruction and activities
Faculty involve students when planning liturgy and prayer experiences
Formal and informal worship experiences are designed for the age, understanding, and culture of the students
Music for worship is included as part of regular music instruction
Study of symbols and rituals related to liturgy are part of the religion curriculum
Immediate sacramental preparation programs are based on a partnership with the parent
Immediate sacramental preparation programs are connected with parish community
Staff, students, parents and other members of the school community have opportunities for public group experiences stressing participation in liturgy, and sacraments
Other:
Other:
Other:

Moral Formation

Indicator	Examples
Students understand the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes as relevant to age-appropriate life issues
Students learn the skills of a Gospel-based formation of conscience in personal and social arenas
Students are taught the dignity , destiny, freedom and responsibility of the human person , together with the reality of sin and the power of God's grace to overcome it
Faculty and students give witness to justice, mercy, peace and respect for life in their everyday actions
Staff members, in their interaction with students, show an awareness and attitude of concern for the religious formation of the students
Other:
Other:
Other:

Teaching to Pray

Indicator	Examples
The staff prays together regularly
Staff has a regular retreat or day of recollection
Staff members participate in prayer with their students
Various prayer forms are taught and creatively utilized, including personal prayer, and shared prayer with others
Meetings and school activities include prayer
A chapel or other area for prayer is available
Other:
Other:
Other:

Education for Community Life

Indicator	Examples
A conscious and deliberate effort is made to develop a faith community within the school
The teaching/learning process includes opportunities for students and teachers to share their own faith life
Age-appropriate skills and interpersonal relationships are experienced and taught
Age-appropriate skills in civic responsibility are experienced and taught
Families are encouraged to take part in parish activities
The role of the parent as the primary influence in the faith development of the child is recognized
Regular family faith practices are an expectation of the program
There is a means of regular communication between parent and teacher
Program policies and practices are designed with the diversity of families in mind
School/parish practices provide for individual assistance to adults (as staff members or parents) in their personal faith development
The school refers families and/or students for professional guidance when necessary
Students learn in age appropriate ways the nature and mission of the church, including an understanding of the church's authority and structures as a faith community
Opportunities for multicultural experiences are a regular part of the program at every age level
Other:
Other:
Other:

Missionary Initiation

Indicator	Examples
The seven themes of Catholic social teaching are regularly referenced in curriculum areas: ✓ Life and Dignity of the Human Person ✓ Call to Family, Community, and Participation ✓ Rights and Responsibilities ✓ Option for the Poor and Vulnerable ✓ The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers ✓ Solidarity ✓ Care for God's Creation
Students understand the application of the church's social teaching in personal, professional, cultural, and social areas
Social justice concerns are integrated into appropriate areas of the curriculum
Appropriate service projects are provided at all grade levels
Students understand both the importance of serving others, and working for the transformation of society according to Gospel values
The actions and interactions of adult staff members model Christian principles
A spirit of reconciliation and commitment to conflict resolution is evidenced in everyday practice
Students are given opportunities to examine various ministries within the church
Vocation programs are in place at all levels
And evangelizing spirit, as part of a baptismal calling, is cultivated among all students and staff
The school is an instrument of evangelization by: ✓ bringing Catholic students and their families into the mainstream of parish life ✓ clarifying and sharing Catholic belief and practice with non-Catholic parents ✓ invitations to unchurched families to church events
School/parish policies provide for: ✓ special financial arrangements for the poor ✓ special accommodations for diverse learning needs within reasonable limitations ✓ student outreach to elderly, shut ends, etc. ✓ flexible response to unfortunate circumstances of families, staff, and parishioners ✓ nondiscriminatory practices and hiring an administration programs ✓ preserving the dignity of the individual and evaluation and discipline ✓ just treatment of employees in remuneration and working conditions
Other:
Other:
Other:	