

What Child is this

On the earth, a Light has dawned
The Light of the human race
God's Word and flesh embrace
In darkness Light has shone

All was made through Him
From His fullness we receive
If only we'd believe
And choose to welcome Him

Of Him the prophets spoke
God's grace and truth within
Enlightening those in sin
To bear His gentle yoke

God's children we'd become
In the light of His Son
