

A wedding at Cana

O Mother lead Thy child to drink
From this sweet and bitter cup
Death nor love Thou shrink
For Thy children lifted up

Not a single drop shall waste
O Precious Love, so full of grace
For every dying soul shall taste
This endless love that Thou embrace

Sign of God's saving flood
His Promise now begins to bleed
A sacrament in flesh and blood
His spoken Word on which to feed

A wedding feast at Cana
Sweetest wine and love so true
God's heavenly wine and manna
Do whatever He tells you

Consecrated love shall dine
Water turned into wine
