The additional opportunities and special events may not be limited to just this list. As additional items come up, we will send out e-mails to all registered students (the e-mail listed on the 2018-2019 RE form), will post on social media, and will advertise in the bulletin. We will also provide reminders and any additional information needed for these listed items via the same platforms.

Information for events that require registration or further information regarding a time and location will be provided as that becomes available to us or is decided upon in our office. Please keep your eye out for those announcements and details.

We also offer Bible Studies weekly (on Tuesdays) at two different times in two different locations. Below gives additional information:
