

6th Grade Homeroom Teacher
Queen of Apostles School in San Jose

Work Commitment: Full-Time

Position Summary

- General Skills: demonstrate the knowledge, skills and experience necessary to complete the tasks required of a homeroom teacher:
 - Communicate with students, parents, teachers, and principal
 - Work collaboratively with the other members of the junior high team
 - Create and teach lessons for 6th, 7th and 8th grade social studies, and 6th and 7th grade Literature that meet the needs of all learners
 - Lead the class in prayer and integrate the Catholic faith and Schoolwide Learning Expectations into a classroom environment
 - Correct all student work and provide feedback to students and parents
 - Complete school supervision before and after school and during recess
 - Manage a classroom positively in conjunction with the school's mission
 - The 6th grade homeroom teacher must lead one week at outdoor school.

- Language Skills: Must be proficient in both written and spoken English to communicate with students, parents, and staff members.
- Working Conditions: The job requires the 6th grade homeroom teacher to be on campus for the entirety of the school day for all scheduled school days and in-service day. The teacher must understand and model the school's philosophy towards a Catholic education.
- Working Experience: The applicant should have some experience of working with middle school children.
- Equipment: Must be able to use a laptop, iPad and work a classroom projector.

Other Requirements:

- Fingerprint clearance
- Current TB Test
- Bachelor's Degree

How to apply:

Please send your resume and cover letter to Marty Chargin at martin.chargin@dsj.org.