

3rd Grade Teacher

St. Philip's School, San Francisco, is a K-8 school that has been providing a quality Catholic education since 1938. Academic excellence and faith-based learning combine to create an environment where students can succeed. A rigorous curriculum and a variety of enrichment classes provide opportunities for students to reach their full potential. Educators are committed to meeting the needs of the whole child in a motivated and loving learning environment.

The school community is seeking a qualified 3rd Grade teacher for the 2019-2020 school year.

The applicant will be required to teach core subjects – Religion, Math, ELA, Social Studies, and Science.

Qualifications and job description:

Candidates must possess:

- A Bachelor's degree
- A valid California teaching credential * (or a reciprocal credential from another state)
- Classroom management skills
- Teaching experience with children
- The ability to communicate well with parents, faculty, and students
- The ability to utilize and integrate technology in the classroom
- A commitment to excellence and the mission of the school

*If the candidate does not yet possess a valid California teaching credential, (s)he must acquire one within 5 years of the date of hire

Information about the school can be viewed on the school's website: www.saintphilipschool.org

Salary: as per SF Archdiocesan Salary Scale

Please email resume and cover letter to Mary McKeever, Principal mary.mckeever@saintphilipschool.org

Statement of Non-Discrimination

St. Philip's School adheres to the following policy: "All school staff of Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of San Francisco shall be employed without regard to race, color, sex, ethnic or national origin and will consider for employment, qualified applicants with criminal histories." (Administrative Handbook #4111.4)

