Grand Knight's Report

By Steve Bell

"TO KNOW HIM, LOVE HIM, AND SERVE HIM"

Brothers

We have only two more months until the end of our Fraternal Year. Time flies when you are having fun (or is it when you are stressed)? There is much to do in these final two months. We need only 4 more insurance members to make Star Council, please consider talking to our brother and Field Representative, Derrell Murphy. We presented our proposed slate of officers for next year and will have elections in June. We will take additional nominations at the May and June business meetings. Please consider taking on a Director Role and leading our council in the areas of Family, Church, Fraternal, Community and other activities. See me or DGK Nick Klepac to help out in a large or small way. We especially need some help on our Public Relations Committee. Our brother and chairman of this committee, Eric Nguyen is getting married and as you can imagine has even less time on his hands than he did before. This committee is an extremely important committee as it is responsible for publicizing our events and getting our council and the community energized about what we do! We need you!!

DGK Klepac has a calendar full of events so take some time look at the calendar and circle 2 or 3 events that you know you do not want to miss. By the time you read this, our Annual Bonnie Invitational will be in the bag. I hope that you did not miss out on this great event. Be on the lookout for our First Friday Mass on 6-MAY, Bunco Night on 14-May, Dinner & A Movie on 31-May, Family Spirituality Night on 3-JUN and Installation of Officers Dinner on 28-JUN. See you then!

Vivat Jesus
Steve

Deacons Report

By Deacon Stan Grenn

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Several weeks ago, a beautiful cardinal landed on a tree in my backyard. As I watched it enjoy the warm spring sun, I couldn't help but think of a passage from Matthew that reassures us of God's great love for us: "Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?"

We live in turbulent times. There is much violence throughout the world. It is easy to give way to fear. In times like this we need to remember that our Lord is always there for us. Scripture tells us that he knows every hair on our head. He knows us better than we do our self.

Worry and fear create an obstacle to our relationship with Jesus Christ. This is a good time to place our trust in the Lord.

God bless,
Deacon Stan

Two important items on the Council horizon - Elections and Dues

ARTICLE II – Elections, Section 1 and 2, the annual election of officers will take place at our “regular business meeting” on June 14th. At the March meeting Grand Knight, Steve Bell, appointed a Nominating Committee of three, headed by Russell Strauss PGK, who prepared a slate of candidates for the elective council offices.

The slate of officers was initially presented by Russell Strauss to the council at the April regular business meeting and additional nominations, if any, were taken from the floor at that time. Nominations were not closed and other nominations will continue to be taken from the floor at the May regular business meeting and closed, with the Annual Election to take place at the June Regular Business Meeting.

The election of officers will be by ballot and a majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to elect. When there is only one candidate proposed for a particular office, and no further nominations are made from the floor, the Grand Knight will declare the individual elected by acclamation. Voting by proxy or absentee ballot is prohibited. You need to be present to vote.

Article I - Dues Section 2 and 3, at Council 4727 Annual Dues are due July 1st in the amount of $48.00, except for:

Insured Members, under age 26, who pay $24.00

Honorary Members, who pay the sum of State & Supreme per capita charges & levies

Honorary Life Members, who pay nothing

Checks should be made payable to Bishop W. Thomas Larkin 4727 and can be sent to: Council Financial Secretary Ralph Mosley PGK, 6137 Thistlewood Rd., Jacksonville, Florida 32277 or see Ralph at the next meeting.

Family of the Month April 2016

Our Family of the Month is active in both their parish of Christ the King and our Council. He has been a Knight since 2003 and together with their children give back to their church and community on a daily basis. He is active as a reader at Mass and both of them are VERY involved in the Cursillo movement. (If you do not know what this is, ask someone, it will change your life). Together with their children they run one of our more popular events, our Annual Easter Egg Hunt. Please join me in congratulating John, Colleen and the rest of the Lewis Family as our Family of the Month!

Knight of the Month April 2016

Our Knight of the Month joined our order only five months ago but he has jumped right in and has helped out in many ways. He is pretty quiet and laid back but he brings an energy to our council. He has recruited one new Knight and is working with one of our inactive brothers to come back and get active. He joined our Bonnie Invitational Golf Tournament Committee and is helping out where he can. He even filled in as our Financial Secretary for our most recent 1st Degree. He and his wife are very active at Resurrection and are leading a couples' renewal program called A Choice Wine. Please join me in congratulating Terry Frank our Knight of the Month!

Culture of LIFE Message for May 2016

Pope Francis' highly anticipated post-synodal apostolic exhortation on the gifts and challenges of family life, "Amoris Laetitia" (The Joy of Love) was published April 8th. Some passages of the new document, at this time, remain unclear and open to multiple interpretations which will, no doubt, open a door in the secular press to editorialize when they report. Vatican City, Rome (CNA/EWTN News) cites Fr. Jose' Granados, vice president of the John Paul II Pontifical Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family and consultor of the Secretariat of the Synod of Bishops, who indicated the pope's exhortation Amoris Laetitia must be read in "doctrinal continuity" "If there are doubts or some paragraph remain unclear, the correct interpretation is that in accordance with the constant teaching of the Church." "Pope Francis has repeatedly said that he did not want to change any doctrinal item, and this must be the key through which we interpret the document."

In this new document, Pope Francis stresses the importance of individual discernment over one-size-fits-all style rules. He suggested that in some cases, a person who is divorced-and-civilly-remarried may not be in a state of mortal sin, due to mitigating factors such as a lack of full knowledge and consent. And thus the confusion, speculation, and questions about whether this constitutes an actual change in practice, and if so, under what circumstances.

Fr. Granados explained that "the exhortation must be interpreted as in continuity with St. John Paul II's Veritatis Splendor, which was aimed at teaching the moral teaching of the Church." He further stressed that a pastoral exhortation "cannot address norms coming from the Divine Law received by Christ, what the Church cannot change." "... there is a need for discernment."

Fr. Granados went on to suggest that one of the signals of strong continuity with the traditional teaching of the Church is the strong praise paid to Blessed Paul VI's encyclical Humanae Vitae, which reaffirmed the Church's traditional teaching against the use of artificial contraception. In Amoris Laetitia, "There is a reference to conscience, but conscience is always meant to be rightly formed. There is never an opposition between conscience and moral law."

The exhortation also rejects abortion, gender ideology, euthanasia, while at the same time praises large families. Fr. Granados further suggested these issues "are pivotal to expressing a culture of family, the only kind of culture through which we announce the Gospel of Christ." "Christian faith cannot be lived in private, in the intimacy of an isolated and subjective conscience. It is situated in the world and in the communion among men ..." The document itself runs 246 pages in length and can be downloaded via the internet at: http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_exhortations/documents/papa-francesco_esortazione-ap_20160319_amoris-laetitia.html

April 16th was the National Health Care Decisions Day and presented an opportunity to Plan for Advanced Care (a/k/a End-of-Life Planning, Designation of Health Care Surrogate and Living Will). The documents have been updated on the Florida Council of Catholic Bishops website and can be found at: <http://www.flaccb.org/declaration-on-life-and-death>

You are encouraged to discuss your plans with your family and execute appropriate documents.
