Sister Paula Gallagher IHM is a member of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart from Scranton PA. She has served as a music educator, spirituality presenter, spiritual director, liturgist and liturgical musician, RCIA director, family care giver, and adult faith formation specialist in the Diocese of Brooklyn NY, Pittsburgh PA, Scranton/Willkes Barre PA, Newark NJ, Nelson, British Columbia Canada, and in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.

Sister Paula has served as a presenter for Sabbatical programs at Sangre de Cristo Center and Canossian Center, retreat facilitator at the Dominican Retreat Center, Canossian Center, Madonna Center, for various communities of religious women, Archdiocesan and parish groups. She has facilitated several bereavement support programs for Hospice and faith communities. Currently she is an Adult Faith Formation presenter for the Pastoral Ministries Division of the Archdiocese, teaching basic theology courses, advanced level scripture, leadership courses for the schools of ministry, and programs for the formation of catechists. She offers individual spiritual direction, and serves as RCIA Director for San Isidro Parish in Santa Fe, NM. She is a 2015 recipient of the Dominican Ecclesial Institute's Lumen Gentium award for excellence in adult faith formation.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December, 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them. The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is NOT part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this.

Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.
