

SEAS MIDDLE SCHOOL SUMMER READING BOOK LIST

6TH GRADE

1. My Side of the Mountain by Jean Craighead George
Sam Gribbley surprises everyone when he decides to live on his own in the Catskill Mountains. He learns about courage, independence, and the need for companionship in this gripping, inspiring, wilderness-survival adventure.
2. Bud, Not Buddy by Christopher Paul Curtis
Set during the Great Depression, we come to know and love the tenacious ten-year-old Bud for his strength of character, his humor, and his determination to find his true place in the world no matter the obstacle.
3. Cracker! The Best Dog in Vietnam by Cynthia Kadohata
A realistic story of America's war in Vietnam, using the alternating viewpoints of an army dog named Cracker and her 17-year-old handler, Rick Hanski.
4. When Friendship Followed Me Home by Paul Griffin
Ben Coffin has never felt like he fits in. A former foster kid, he keeps his head down at school to avoid bullies and takes refuge in reading sci-fi books at the library. But that changes when he finds a scruffy abandoned dog named Flip and becomes friends with the librarian's daughter, Halley.
5. One Crazy Summer by Rita Williams-Garcia
Set during one of the most tumultuous years in recent American history, one crazy summer is the heartbreaking, funny tale of three girls in search of the mother who abandoned them.
6. Hold Fast by Blue Balliett
11-year-old Early and her family don't have much in the way of physical possessions, but they are rich in love and affection for one another. Early's parents, especially her father, pass on to her a love of books and a strong faith that situations can improve if you work hard enough.
7. The Gate by Nancy Carabio Belanger
Joshua Lasko is a smart-alecky middle school boy, whose faith disappears at his father's death. He meets Pie, a nursing home resident, and his life turns around into a whopping surprise.
8. Hattie Ever After by Kirby Larson
In 1919, seventeen-year-old Hattie leaves the Montana prairie - and her sweetheart Charlie - to become a female reporter in San Francisco.
9. Crenshaw by Katherine Applegate
In her first novel since The One and Only Ivan, winner of the Newbery Medal, Katherine Applegate delivers an unforgettable and magical story about family, friendship, and resilience.
10. A Handful of Stars by Cynthia Lord
Lily, an orphaned 12-year-old who lives in a small eastern Maine town, becomes fast friends with Salma, a Latina migrant worker who has come with her family to pick blueberries. But as the Blueberry Queen pageant approaches Lily and Selma are confronted with the hard truths of prejudice and migrant life.
