January 24, 2019

Dear Parents,

We begin our Catholic Schools' Week activities on Sunday, January 27, 2019 with our Mass at 9:45 am. The student council will be lectors, altar servers, and gift bearers, and our select chorus will be singing. These students will be in full winter uniform to show their school spirit and pride. Any other students who attend the Mass should also be in uniform to let our parishioners know who we are! After Mass, there will be a light continental breakfast in the gym for our school families.

During Catholic School week we have several activities planned for the students, including an ice cream social and a student teacher volleyball game. There will be an Open House on Tuesday morning for you, our current families. Teachers will be teaching, so I ask that you come in quietly. We also have Open House that morning for prospective families. However, the highlight of our day on Tuesday is the "Living Rosary" in the gym at 1:00 pm. Parents are invited.

On Monday, if your child doesn't have sports team apparel, jeans and sweats are okay. No cheer leader uniforms. Wednesday is "mix and match", and Thursday is "comfy/cozy" day. On Wednesday and Thursday, please remember my guidelines for dress down: no short, off-the-shoulder, torn or jeggings type of apparel. Also no pajamas for "comfy/cozy".

We are looking forward to a great week! God bless.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Daley
