

If You Can-

If people lie to you,
But you stay truthful,
If people are negative,
But you are positive,
If people win and brag
But you win and remain humble,

If people criticize you,
But you say nice things to them,
If people are sore losers,
But you lose and say "good game",
If people bully,
But you protect who is being bullied,

If people are self-absorbed,
But you worry about how others are doing,
If people care about what others think of them,
But you don't care about what others think about you,

Then, you will become one of the greatest people to ever live.
