

*PALM SUNDAY* and *GOOD FRIDAY***

Two *Processions* of a same Person but with two different *Responses.***

One was a triumphant *ENTRY* into the Jerusalem city;
the second, a painful *EXIT* outside the Jerusalem city.

In the first, the *DONKEY* carried Jesus; in the second, Jesus carried the *CROSS***.
In the first, *HOSANNA* was the song; in the second, *CRUCIFY* was the cry.
In the first, people held live *BRANCHES* of the tree; in the second, Jesus held dry *WOOD* of the tree.

In the first, people's garments were *SPREAD* on the road; in the second, Jesus' garments were *DIVIDED* among the four.

In the first, the Disciples *ACCOMPANIED* Jesus; in the second, the Disciples *FLED* from Jesus.

The first, was a scene of *GLORY*; the second, was the scene of *MISERY***.

In the first event there was *SUNSHINE*; in the second event *DARKNESS* covered the earth.

To sum up all the above things:

- Entry= *Birth***

Exit= *Death***;

- Donkey= *Comfort***

Cross= *Struggle***;

- Hosanna= *Appreciation***

Crucify= *Criticism***;

- Branches= *Health***

Wood= *Sickness***;

- Spread= *Richness***

Divide= *Poverty***

- Accompany= *Friends***

Flee= *Enemies***;

- Glory= *Joy***

Misery= *Sorrow***;

- Sunshine= *Smiles***

Darkness= *Tears***

Thus we can conclude: Life is a mixture of both *Sweet and Bitter* moments.

Let's remember:

Happiness is *TEMPORARY***

Sadness is *TRANSITORY ***

On earth we have to go through both, *PALM Sundays* and *GOOD Fridays* to arrive in heaven to experience *RESURRECTION day. ***

A Kite cannot all the time *FLY* above in the air, it has to *LIE* down to the ground.

Both *PALM Sunday* and *GOOD Friday* was needed to arrive at *EASTER Sunday. ***

May the Holy Week make us holy.
