Bishop Larry Silva was appointed by Pope Benedict XVI on May 2005 to serve as the 5th Bishop of the Diocese of Honolulu. He was the first Hawaii-born priest to become a Catholic bishop.

Fr. Bill Halbing, pastor of St. Antoninus Church in New Jersey, is known for his gift of bible teaching. He has been in the charismatic renewal since 1975. He has been a featured guest speaker at conferences, retreats, days of renewal, parish missions and children’s bible conferences.

Fr. Mark Wheelan, SOLT serves the community of native American Indians in North Dakota. He is the chaplain for the Sisters of Mary of the Presentation, who operate a Catholic Health System in North Dakota.

Fr. Tom Ganley is the chaplain at the McCarick Care Center and the Robert Wood Johnson Hospital in New Jersey. He has been involved in Divine Mercy and Healing ministry. He has written a book entitled “Divine Mercy and Healing: a Charismatic View”.

This Divine Mercy Healing Conference is organized and sponsored by the Divine Mercy Center of Hawaii, home of the Eucharistic Apostles of the Divine Mercy, a lay apostolate ministry of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception based in Stockbridge, MA. For more info, please call 808-389-5764 or visit the website of EADM Hawaii www.divinemercuryhawaii.org.

Dave and Joan Maroney are founders and co-directors of the Mother of Mercy Messengers (MOMM), a lay ministry of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception in Stockbridge, Massachusetts. They have provided thousands of people in parishes and schools a chance to draw closer to the heart of Jesus through dramatic live multi-media presentations.
