My Dear Parishioners,

Here we are beginning the first week of the Holy Season of Lent!

Lent is the time to consider that our lives as Christians are meant to be an ongoing process of conversion. While we believe that Jesus has indeed redeemed us, and opened for us the way to life with God, we also know about the need for daily conversion.

I came across a list of practices that might help us to an awareness of God and a conversion of the heart during the Lenten Season:

- * Engage in the sacramental life of the Church.
- * Engage in the liturgical life of the Church.
- * Develop an active prayer life.
- * Continually form a moral conscience.
- * Make choices that respect the human dignity of self and others.

- * Express sorrow, repentance, and forgiveness for sins.
- * Evangelize by witness in words and actions.
- * Engage in activities that foster social justice.

My friends, the bulletin this week contains opportunities for us to continue our journey of conversion. I look forward to seeing you during this Holy Season and to sharing with you this wonderful, spiritual journey.

Siempre Adelente!
 Msgr. Liam Kidney

Treasures From Our Tradition

Often, when a family keeps vigil around a person who is preparing for death, they may notice three interwoven activities. First, the dying person may become more prayerful and reflective than ever before, reviewing life's journey in gratitude to God, or seeking forgiveness and making amends for wrongs. Second, as death approaches, the need to eat and drink is lessened until even an ice cube brushed against the lips is satisfying. Third, persons who are dying often make plans to give their possessions away, making bequests, handing treasures down, providing for favorite charities.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: with these three "pillars" of Lent, we rehearse our death every year in this season, and anticipate the final work we will do in this life. And every year, at the end of our journey, is the joy of Easter and the experience of the victory of Christ over death's darkness and power. Annually, we remind ourselves that the Christian experiences the same power and presence at the end of life's journey: Christ to the rescue and the lasting joy of heaven.

EUCCHARIST for HOMEBOUND

Please notify the Parish Office at 310 456-2361 or Shirley D'Haenens at 310 457-5383 if you know anyone who is a shut-in and would like to have the Eucharist brought to them at home by one of the members of the Homebound Ministry Team.

Hospitality Ministry

Looking to join a ministry that will help transform the Sunday experience for parishioners and visitors alike at OLM? Look no further. We're building a Hospitality Ministry team to help engage the community before and after all Masses, handing out worship aids & bulletins and staffing an information table. The only requirements necessary are a time commitment of 15 minutes before and after Mass as well as an inviting smile. If you're looking to engage the community in this way, please call or text Leslie Godwin @ 818-634-4486.
