

Attention: Current Children's Scholarship Fund recipients

You should have received an email from CSFP with instructions on completing your portion of the Student Verification Report for Spring 2019. This must be completed by the parent in order for the school to receive the second installment of your scholarship. If you have any questions, please contact the CSFP office immediately