LENTEN BIBLE STUDY

THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

Fr. Dave will offer a 4 week study of the Gospel of St. Luke during Lent. Classes will be held from 6pm to 7pm on four consecutive Mondays beginning March 11th. Fr. Dave will be at the St. Denis Rectory Conference Room and will stream on our HELLO 2 system to Holy Rosary Parish Center, Caribou; St. Mary Conference Room, Presque Isle and St. Mark's Conference Room in Ashland.

Participants will need their own Bible (Fr. Dave will use the New American Bible), and the internet at home might come in handy.

Topics to be discussed from St. Luke's Gospel: The prologue and Jesus' preparation for ministry, Jesus in Galilee, the Journey to Jerusalem, hostility and controversies in Jerusalem, the passion, resurrection and ascension of Jesus.

There is no cost but donations are always welcomed to pay for the HELLO 2 system. Participants will be required to read and reflect on the Gospel of St. Luke.

Register by calling 498-2536.
