

Proclamation

Whereas, Oklahoma is blessed with an abundance of oil and natural gas and is one of the nation's top producers; and

Whereas, we acknowledge that all natural resources are created by God; and

Whereas, the oil and gas industry of Oklahoma is blessed to provide a better quality of life for our fellow citizens; and

Whereas, Oklahoma is blessed with many oil and gas companies and related service companies which are headquartered and operated in our great state; and

Whereas, the state of Oklahoma recognizes the value of these companies, employees, and their commitment to conducting business based upon Christian principles; and

Whereas, the state of Oklahoma also recognizes the tremendous economic benefits of high quality jobs the oil and gas business provides to the state of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, united in prayer we implore Almighty God to give us wisdom, guidance and protection in exploring and developing these natural resources for the betterment of all citizens;

Note, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim September 19, 2013 as

“Oilfield Prayer Day”

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Mr. Limbacher joined Samson April 18, 2013. He is the Chief Executive Officer and President of Samson.

Mr. Limbacher most recently was with Rosetta Resources, Inc. where he served as Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President until February 26, 2013. He has 32 years of experience in the exploration and production business, both domestically and internationally. At Rosetta Resources, he led a dramatic reshaping of the business as it transitioned from a conventional exploration company to a leading developer of unconventional resources. Prior to joining Rosetta, Mr. Limbacher served as President, Exploration and Production – Americas for ConocoPhillips where he was responsible for all exploration and production activities in the Western Hemisphere. Mr. Limbacher joined ConocoPhillips as part of its 2006 acquisition of Burlington Resources Inc., where he spent over 20 years. His role at the time of the acquisition was Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and as a director on the Board of Directors of Burlington. Mr. Limbacher serves on the Board of Directors of CARBO Ceramics Inc. He holds a Bachelors of Science in Petroleum Engineering from Louisiana State University.
