

Knight Talks Series presents...

DRUG

AWARENESS EVENT

Tuesday, March 12th

at 7:30 PM

St. Mary Parish Hall

(@ Saint Mary School)

Drugs in the Home

Parishioner Marilyn C. Kain will lead the discussion on how children, teens and adults find themselves exposed to addictive drugs in the home. She will cover best practices to keep a safe home, discussing with your kids the substances that may exist in your home, and signs to look for to detect a problem. Further, Marilyn will discuss the costs and benefits of medications often prescribed to youth.

We encourage all to attend this important event!

Marilyn C. Kain, M.S., LADC, LPC is a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor (LADC), a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC), has been employed by the Christian Counseling Center in Brookfield, CT for over 31 years and has spent 22 years as an adjunct professor in the Division of Justice and Law Administration at Western Connecticut State University. In 2018, she received the CT Board of Regents for Higher Education Adjunct Professor of the Year Award for the CT State College and University system and has presented at the last two National Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences conferences in the area of substance abuse and drug abuse awareness.