Notes from the Teacher

The second graders will each randomly select an everyday item to write about this week. We will discuss thankfulness and focus on how to appreciate the simple things that we rely on each day. We also will continue to practice addition of larger numbers with and without regrouping. Thank you for supporting your child as a learner.

The students will enjoy the book Balloons Over Broadway, by Melissa Sweet. This book tells the true story of the creation of the balloons for the Macy's Day Parade on Thanksgiving. The second graders will then create their own design using S.T.E.M. concepts. Thank you Mrs. Baker for partnering with me for this fun engineering design challenge!
