SERVICE PROJECT THE CHEERFUL GIVER

The children will listen to a true story about Saint Nicholas. Saint Nicholas is known as the First Santa Claus. Nicholas was a saint who cheerfully gave away his own money to help the poor and needy.

The Bible tells us:

"God loves a cheerful giver" 2 Corinthians 9:7

Service Project will involve the campers in a "Spare Your Change Drive". Each day throughout the week campers will donate their spare change to help pregnant women in need and their families through a group challenge. Donations will be collected in containers labeled with a picture of Saint Nicholas, known as the "Cheerful Giver". The funds will be used to support The Desormeaux Foundation's Pregnancy Center.

Catechism of the Catholic Church

The virtues of faith, hope, and love, were given to us at Baptism. Love is the greatest of all virtues. Jesus made love a new commandment; a law of love. We serve God by sharing our time, treasure, and talent with others. We must practice the virtues. CCC 186, 1827, 1813, 1823
