Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Cathedral,

Have you ever wondered to yourself – What am I supposed to do with my life? Probably most of us have mused on that question at one point or another. The Saint that the Church celebrates on March 3 – Saint Katharine Drexel – wondered about this very same thing in her own life, and received her answer through a rather dramatic challenge.

Katharine was born to a very prominent family in Philadelphia on November 26th, 1858. Her father was a banker, and one of the wealthiest men in America. Her mother died just after her birth, and so she never really knew her. Katharine’s father and step-mother set a wonderful example of faith for their children – there was a chapel in the family home, to which her father went to pray every day after work; several times a week, her parents would open their house to feed the poor; and Katharine herself would teach catechism classes during the summer to the children of the workers on her family’s summer estate. One of the truths that the Drexels impressed upon their children was the knowledge that their vast wealth did not belong to them, but that it had been entrusted to them by God, and as such, they were called to be good stewards of it – using it to serve others.

When Katherine was in her early 20s she lost, in short order, both her father and her step-mother, leaving her and her sisters to inherit a massive fortune. She was not entirely sure what to do with so much money, but the lessons her parents had instilled in her concerning the purpose of wealth stuck with her. Katharine had become aware of the plight of Native Americans and African Americans during her extensive travels around the country, and after she was visited by some missionaries who were working with these groups of people, she made significant contributions to support their missionary efforts. But, she was still struggling to find her purpose in life.

So, she took a trip to Europe, and near the end of her time there, she had an audience with Pope Leo XIII. She shared with the Holy Father the plight of the Native Americans and African Americans in the United States, and begged him to find some missionary order to send to minister to their needs. To which the Pope replied: “Why don’t you do something about it,” meaning, why don’t you be that missionary. Pope Leo’s words cut her very deeply, and as she left the audience she found herself sobbing. His challenge had stirred up the question of religious life in her heart. After some discernment, in 1891, Katherine Drexel founded the “Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored People.” As the name suggests, this order would be dedicated to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and serving those who were most neglected in society. Mother Drexel would spend the rest of her life exhausting herself and her fortune in the service of others. By the end of her life, she had over 500 sisters teaching in over 60 schools and missions throughout the country, including Xavier University (the first institution of higher learning for African Americans in the United States). Saint Katharine Drexel died in 1955 at the age of 96.

Mother Drexel’s life reminds us that we should all strive to be aware of the needs that are right in front of our nose. Perhaps these needs are right in front of our nose, because God’s is inviting us to do something about them. Instead of saying, “someone should really do something about this,” we might instead remember to words of Pope Leo XIII – “Why don’t you do something about it.”

The Diocesan Rite of Election will be celebrated at the Cathedral at 5:30 pm, on Sunday, March 10th. Due to the timing of this event, there will be no 5:30 pm parish Mass that Sunday.

The Cathedral Young Adult Group will meet following the 5:30 pm Mass this Sunday, February 24, in the Lower Sacristy. Please plan to join us then!

Been to Confession lately? - The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a healing remedy for our sinfulness. Confession, one part of the Sacrament, calls us to discover the struggles that cause sinful acts and present them to God in the presence of the priest. All Catholics should consider approaching this sacrament at least twice a year, especially during Advent and Lent. Although serious matters should be brought before the priest, our lesser sins are healed through the celebration of Mass or with sincere contrition and any good work.

Family Perspectives - Families each teach their own set of values. The Gospel speaks of judging, condemning, and forgiving, noting in effect "what goes around comes around." "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven." Practice and grow with the Gospel virtues of mercy and forgiveness. Be bold and stop the family blame game. Forgiving families prosper.

Let Us Pray - You will find "Oremus" cards at the entrances of the Cathedral. Please use them to share your prayer needs, loved ones for whom you are praying, concerns that you hold in your heart. Write those prayer needs on the card and drop them in the collection basket. These will be collected and placed just inside the Resurrection Chapel near a vigil light. For four weeks, we will remember your intentions in our public liturgical intercessions. We ask you to add them to your personal prayer as well.

Summer at Camp Happiness - It may seem early, but, summer will be here soon! Camp Happiness will be interviewing college students and young professionals to work this summer at our two camp sites – located in Wickliffe and Parma. This is a great opportunity for you to experience a job that is truly one of service and is personally fulfilling for the staff... and, they have fun! Camp Happiness is from June 10 to July 26, from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm (includes one week of training and six weeks of camp). Visit <ccdocle.org/disability> for more information or find us on Facebook. Contact Lauren Mailey, Program Administrator of Catholic Charities Disability Services, for more information: 216-334-2963, or <lmmailey@ccdocle.org>.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE From March 6 to April 14, you're invited to join other Christians for 40 Days for Life; 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You're also invited to stand and peacefully pray anytime between 7:00 am and 7:00 pm during the 40 day vigil in the public right-of-way outside Preterm in Cleveland or Family Planning in Painesville. The Cathedral Charitable Assistance Fund - Did you know that the Cathedral rectory is asked daily for assistance in filling in some of the gaps in the social service sector? Donations from you make it possible to give this assistance. We are the rare place to give aid to travelers stranded by extreme circumstances. Help with rent/utilities, in obtaining documentation necessary for work, or for obtaining prescriptions is also sometimes given. These acts of charity, as well as helping people find the social service agency best equipped to assist their need, are performed daily here at the Cathedral. When you give to the "Offerings for the Poor" collection boxes in the Cathedral, you are donating to the Cathedral's Charitable Assistance Fund, which is used to assist the needy that come to us for help. During these hard financial times the need is especially great. Your continued generosity makes this assistance possible. Thank you!

Chaplain Services - If you have a loved one incarcerated in one of the eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland and would like to have a priest, deacon, or a lay volunteer minister visit with them, please call the Parish Life Office at 800-869-6525 or 216-696-6525 x 3500. The Diocesan Ministry to the Incarcerated has a presence in the three state prisons, the county jails, and the juvenile facilities located within our Diocese. If you have a loved one in one of these institutions, we would be glad to have someone visit with them.

Catholic Charities: Your Impact

Amanda always knew she wanted to send her children to Catholic schools. "I enjoyed my experience in Catholic schools, and I wanted my kids to have the same experience," she says. With five children, tuition is a concern for Amanda and her husband, Michael. When their oldest child, Dylan, was in kindergarten, the parents learned about tuition assistance.

"It makes a huge difference," says Amanda, especially now that Dylan attends Elyria Catholic High School and two of his siblings, Jasef and Elaine, attend St. Jude School in Elyria. In addition to a solid Catholic foundation, Amanda appreciates the individualized attention her children receive at school. "The teachers are so involved," she says.

Amanda and Michael encourage other parents to look into tuition assistance. "Fill out the forms. You may qualify," Amanda says. Through the tuition assistance program, more children are able to receive a quality Catholic education, she adds. "Without that help, students can't get the opportunity their parents would love them to have."

Serving the Poor in Our Midst

Cosgrove Center, we are able to fill some of their needs. Listed below is a report on the assistance the Cathedral has offered this past month, and on your generosity in support of these efforts.

Bless the Lord O my soul; and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion.

Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and abounding in kindness. Not according to our sins does he deal with us, nor does he requite us according to our crimes.

As far as the east is from the west, so far has he put our transgressions from us. As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him.

Homily

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Love One Another

Love one an - oth - er, for love is of God.

Love one an - oth - er, for God is love.

Text: 1 John 4, Love one another; James J. Chepponis. Music: James J. Chepponis; © 1983, GIA Publications Inc, Chicago IL 60638. Printed with permission: OneLicense A-702555

God loved the world so much he sent us his only son, That all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Since God has given his love to us, therefore let us love one another. If we love one another, God will love us, and live in us in perfect love.

Everyone who loves is begotten of God and knows him as the Father. But they who do not love do not know God, for God is love.

Let not your hearts be troubled, for love has no room for fear. In love all fear is forgotten, for God is here with us.

God is love; they who abide in love, abide in God, and God in them.

Choir: Ubi caritas et amor David Briggs (2006)

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor. Exsultemus et in ipso jucundemur. Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum. Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.

Where there is charity and love, God is there. The love of Christ has gathered us together. Let us exult and be glad in it. Let us revere and love the living God. And from a sincere heart let us love one another.
