

Grow & go

Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.

OCTOBER 14, 2018 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
CANONIZATION OF OSCAR ROMERO AND POPE PAUL VI

Scripture Readings for the 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time can be found here

In this week's Gospel, the rich young man approaches Jesus to find out what he needs to do in order to enter the Kingdom of God. He's obeyed the rules of the Jewish faith, prays and keeps the commandments. Jesus commends him for his efforts but tells him that more is required: he must become detached from his possessions, share them with the poor, and then become more fully attached to God. We become joyful by sharing our gifts with others.

- Has having something you really wanted ever turned out to be a disappointment?
- Is the human spirit quashed by our society's emphasis on having things?
- What is holding you back from giving yourself fully to God?
- How can we turn an attitude of doing nothing wrong into an attitude of doing good?

There are two films you might want to check out in relationship to this week's Saints. Romero, with Raul Julia playing the Archbishop tells the story of Oscar Romero. The 1991 film Black Robes, depicts the life of missionaries like Isaac Joques and companions who brought the Gospel to Huron tribes.

We celebrate the feast of St. Teresa of Avila (for whom Avila University and St. Teresa's Academy are named) on the 16th. Learn more about her here.

Wondering how people become saints? Here's a quick summary of the process.

Do you ever get bored at Mass? Watch this quick video.

Follow Father Tom on Twitter (@FatherTomHolder) to get his Words for the Week, or check the homepage of our website.

We heard you!

At the Visioning Meeting with Bishop Johnston, many people said we need to increase our focus on Young People

Two events for youth this fall at Presentation!

Parish Synod for Youth
Tuesday, October 16

Speaker Matt Fradd
Monday, October 22

Encourage young people you know to attend!

Questions? Email mstorms@olpls.org