

A weekly resource for everyday evangelizers

AUGUST 5, 2018: 18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Scripture Readings for the 18th Sunday of Ordinary Time can be found here

In this week's Gospel, people seek Jesus because he has fed them from a few loaves and fishes. They want him to keep performing signs so that they can believe in him, but Jesus has other ideas.

True, God wants to meet our physical needs: he sent manna in the desert to the people of Israel and Jesus has provided abundant food for them in this story. Jesus wants to provide more than just food for our mouths; he offers spiritual food for the people's hearts that will lead to eternal life.

- What are some ways you have been "fed" by kindness, forgiveness or wisdom?
- Where do you see God's providence/care for his people in our world today?

Before entering a pew in a Catholic Church, many people genuflect to the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved. In this video, Father Mike Schmitz explains why we Genuflect

We celebrate St. Dominic on August 8. The founder of the Dominican order, these followers were known for their preaching, particularly against the Albigensian heresy. Albigensian's believed that the human body is evil; the Church teaches that because humans are created in God's image, the human body is good. Other saints celebrated this week are St. Theresa Benedicta (Edith Stein) on August 9; St.

Lawrence, patron of comedians on August 10 and St. Clare, companion of St. Francis Assisi and founder of the Poor Clares. You can watch a movie about Clare at www.formed.org Register with our parish code: 327564 for free access.
