

Grow & go

A weekly resource for everyday evangelizers

JANUARY 27, 2019: THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

*He has sent me
to proclaim liberty to captives and
recovery of sight
to the blind,
to let the oppressed
go free.*

Scriptures for the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time can be found here

Luke begins today's Gospel with an assurance to Theophilus that the recorded narratives are true.

Theophilus, in Greek, means "friend of God." - we don't know who he is, but we know he is a Christian.

- Imagine you are seated in the synagogue today. What do you see and hear as Jesus speaks?
- What can you do this week to bring justice, liberty, healing and freedom to our world?
- This week we sing Psalm 19. Here is a recording of a popular setting for the Psalm.

This Week in the Church

This is Catholic Schools Week. Learn more about our school and religious education programs for children ages 1 to 18 here, here and here

We celebrate two saints important to education this week— click on their names for more information: Thomas Aquinas, John Bosco.

St Blaise Day is celebrated February 3. On this day, it is customary to offer a blessing of throats for all who wish to receive the blessing. You can learn more about Blaise and the blessing here.

Online Catholic Book Clubs

Do you enjoy reading? Check out these two online Catholic Book Clubs: US Catholic is currently reading Black Domers while America's book club is reading The Winter Father.

Have you watched Netflix's Bird Box? Listen to what Bishop Barron has to say about the controversial film.

At Presentation—see the bulletin for details.

The Knights of Columbus are hosting breakfast on February 2 in the Auditorium.

Join our Parish Community Community for a Game Night on February 8. You need a free ticket; these will be available February 2 and 3.

The Knights of Columbus Las Vegas Night is February 9. $15 admission; must be 21.