

Grow & go

Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel

Scriptures for the 10th Sunday of Ordinary Time can be found here

This week's readings invite us to join in the prophetic ministry of Jesus and to do so with love. Speaking of our faith with others can be challenging; listening to others share their faith requires us to respond with Christian charity.

A simple daily prayer helps us with our sharing and our response:

Jesus, I believe in you.

Jesus, I hope in you.

Jesus, I love you.

- What has God created you to be in His plan?
- Who are some of the people and things you need to walk away from to be more faithful to God's plan for you?

Prophets

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the people of his hometown that all the predictions of the prophets of Israel will come true in him. It's a difficult thing for the people to swallow, and they basically run Jesus out of town. There are two groups of prophets in the Hebrew Scriptures: the major prophets and the minor prophets. Major prophets wrote more than minor prophets, but their messages fell into two basic categories. First, God still loves you and always will, despite your failings, and has a plan for Israel. Secondly, straighten up and fly right or bad things will happen—such as the Exile to Babylon. Here's a light-hearted look at a few of the prophets.

February is Black History Month. Learn about the Church's position on racism here.

This Week at Presentation

Our Family Game Night is Friday, February 8. It's free, but you need a ticket to enjoy an evening of BINGO and snacks. Contact the office at 251-1100 to obtain yours.

The Knights of Columbus are hosting their annual Las Vegas Night on Saturday, February 9. Tickets for this 21 and over event are $15 and can be purchased at the door.